Amit Punyani, Saint Aubin India Private Limited. India: “This is the first time we are participating in drink technology India. It is a good platform to seek business opportunities for different entrepreneurs from the beverage industry. We are looking forward to participating in the upcoming editions of drink technology India at Mumbai as we have received a great response overall, in terms of footfall and potential business prospects.”

Allen Shiao, General Manager, Superaqua International Pvt. Ltd. Taiwan: “We are happy to participate at drink technology India. This is our second year of participation. Both our experiences have been really amazing here and we hope to keep this association with drink technology India in future as well.”

Ayush (M.Tech), Director, Superfil Engineers Pvt. Ltd., India: “We had a great experience with drink technology India. The footfall is great and all the people from the industry were present. The event was fantastic and we will surely be participating in the coming years.”

Cumhur Fillik, Sales & Marketing Manager, Uner Plastik, Turkey: “We are happy to be a part of drink technology India as it provides a great platform for the industry. I have attended the show in Munich last month and I can easily say that this show is almost same as put by the Messe München team. We are looking forward to get some good leads from this show. We hope to participate in the upcoming editions as well.”

Axel Jany, International Customer Consultant, Weyermann: “We have been attending drink technology India for several years now and have always achieved great results in Mumbai. India is a huge market which we are able to serve well thanks to our Indian partner company OM Distributors. Our aim with the event in New Delhi was to meet new potential customers, and that’s exactly what we did. We had a huge number of high-caliber visitors at our stand.
