Testimonials - Indian Ceramics & Ceramics Asia 2017

Emilio Benedetti, Vice President of Acimac and CEO of LB Officine

Meccaniche: "The cooperation between Indian Ceramics and Ceramics Asia was the right decision and had already fruitful results in the last year. The exhibition is an important showcase to show our technologies to the Indian market. This year the quality of the show increased and we are satisfied about the number and quality of visitors."

Abhay Kumar Jha, General Manager, ASHAPURA Minechem Limited: "We are participating at Indian Ceramics & Ceramics Asia for the first time and found it to be the right platform for our business. We met industry experts, right throughout the value chain, from raw material to finished products to machinery. We wish that the exhibition grows in the coming years, offering us the right platform to acquire relevant information and subsequently grow our business."

Anand Damle, Managing Director, De Boer Damle Indian Private Limited: "At Indian Ceramics & Ceramics Asia we met potential customers and displayed our new technology. We also attended the brick workshop where we learnt latest trends and market knowledge."

Manu Khosla, Managing Partner, Floorex: "It is a great platform to interact with the entire Indian ceramics industry and our customers. I must take this opportunity to congratulate Messe Muenchen India, who has been able to offer excellent business, knowledge and networking opportunities – all under one roof!"

Arking Feng, Chairman, Guangdong Eding Industrial Co. Ltd.: "We have been participating at the exhibition since its inception in India. We strongly believe in the value of exhibitions has been able to connect us with the stakeholders of Indian ceramics market. Each year, we meet high quality clients and benefitted from networking events held during the exhibition."

Dr. Chandresh Agarwal, Managing Director, Imerys Ceramic: "This has been our fifth consecutive year of participation at Indian Ceramics & Ceramics Asia and we are extremely satisfied with our participation. The quality and quantity of visitor footfall is very good and the trade fair gives us a great platform to network with industry experts from different countries. Indian Ceramics undisputedly is one of the best trade fairs for the ceramics community."

K.D. Sanghavi, Managing Director Interkiln Industries Limited: "We are keen to understand the market dynamics understand current trends and meet potential buyers. By participating at Indian Ceramics, we have been able to meet all our participation objectives. We also attended the Innovation Exchange, cfi – Ceramics Forum International and brick industry workshop and found it highly informative and relevant to our business."

Vinayak M. Tambwekar, Senior General Manager - Sales & Marketing, H&R Johnson (ENDURA): "Indian Ceramics & Ceramics Asia is industry's only dedicated exhibition where we meet our buyers and connect with industry stakeholders. Since past many years, we have been able to expand our business by meeting right customers at the event. We also found networking programs, conferences and workshops to be highly informative. A must event for anybody from ceramics and brick industry. This year there was a rise in international visitors from across Asia."

Benjamin Chan, Chairman/General Manager, MODENA Technology Limited: "We have been active in India since past eleven years, presently having more than 300 customers from the region. Each year we return to India with the event to re-connect with our clients. We met many customers and had busy three days at the event. Next year we expect to take up bigger stand and meet more potential buyers from India and overseas."

Frank Lee, Overseas Sales Director, Monte Bianco: “We find it very important to be present at Indian Ceramics and with every trade fair, we return with more products and a bigger booth, as our business keeps growing. We found workshops and conferences to be highly informative as well.”

Mayur Doshi, Managing Director, Paradise Group: “We are manufacturers of ceramic sanitary ware since 1972 and have come to the Buyer Seller forum as we know that this will definitely be a value-add. It is indeed a wonderful experience for both the buyers and sellers, as the organizers are conducting meetings, which are ‘free appointments’ and everything has been on-time and the organization of these meetings is perfect. We are getting a good response and hopefully this will similarly be a great success for the event.”

Dhananjay Singh, Marketing Manager, Torrecid India: “We met the right buyers from the ceramic building material and architecture sector, who attended to witness innovative solutions. We are happy to present our products at Indian Ceramics & Ceramics Asia, which proved to be a great platform for all ceramic manufacturers in the country.”

Sunil Mistry, General Manager, 20 Microns: “We are pleased with our participation and met delegations coming from Morbi, Thangarh and other industrial hubs. This event is very important for our business and we will return to meet new customers. We congratulate the organizers for offering us such a valuable platform.”

The next Indian Ceramics & Ceramics Asia will take place from March 7 to 9, 2018.

Indian Ceramics

Indian Ceramics is taking place for the fourteenth time between March 7 and 9, 2018, in Ahmedabad. As the leading show for suppliers to the ceramics industry, this event captures the entire spectrum of classic ceramics, from raw materials through to technical ceramics. Indian Ceramics 2017 attracted around 280 exhibitors, each of them highlighting their products, services and innovations to a trade audience of over 7,100 visitors. Indian Ceramics 2018 – powered by ceramitec – is organized by Messe München India, a subsidiary of Messe München.

Ceramics Asia

Ceramics Asia has been successfully organized for fourth editions since 2012. It became to the most expecting event in ceramics industry in India. The exhibition covered a total show space of almost 12,000 m² with over 104 exhibitors from China, India and international. It covers the whole spectrum of the ceramics industry chain, from machinery, raw materials to technology, which attracts visitors from India and neighboring countries. With the official support from associations of India and China, Ceramics Asia has been proved as the most potential event in the Indian ceramics industry which is bridging the platform between India and the world.

Messe München

Messe München is one of the world's leading trade show companies. In Munich alone, it organizes around 40 trade shows for capital and consumer goods, and key high tech industries. Each year more than 30,000 exhibitors and around two million visitors take part in the events held at the Messe München exhibition center, the ICM – International Congress Center München, and in the MOC Veranstaltungszentrum München. The leading international trade fairs of Messe München are all independently audited. In addition, Messe München organizes trade shows in China, India, Turkey and South Africa. With a combination of affiliates abroad – in Europe, Asia and in Africa – and over 60 foreign representatives actively serving over 100 countries, Messe München has a worldwide business network. The Group also takes a pioneering role as regards sustainability: It is the first trade-fair company to be awarded energy efficiency certification from the technical inspection authorities TÜV SÜD.
